ARTICLE 3

Business of Company

3.1 Permitted Businesses. The business of the Company shall be:

(a) to purchase, invest, trade and sell, whether a long or short position, on margin or otherwise, in capital stock, subscriptions, warrants, bonds, notes, debentures, convertible securities, rights, options, puts and calls relating thereto and other securities (both equity and debt) of companies (all such items being herein "Securities").;

(b) to purchase, invest, trade and sell, whether a long or short position, on margin or otherwise, financial instruments, indices and derivatives (all such items being included in the definition of "Securities" in (a) above, as appropriate);

(c) to engage in such other lawful Securities and Commodities transactions as the Manager may from time to time deem appropriate for the Company. The Manager will also be the manager of other investment vehicles, and will advise customers and other accounts with the same investment objectives as the Company. When effecting transactions for the Company, the Manager may, and most likely will, also be effecting similar or identical transactions for such other investment vehicles, customers and accounts (and may also be doing so for its own account and for the account of its affiliates). In each such case, the Manager will endeavor to treat the Company and all other investment vehicles and other customers and accounts on an essentially pro-rata basis in, among other things, effecting purchases and sales and allocating commissions and brokerage fees. However, in some instances, parity will be difficult or impractical and the Company may pay more, or receive less or pay greater commissions and fees when buying, selling or otherwise effecting transactions than such other investment vehicles, customers or accounts which are buying or selling in otherwise effecting similar or even identical transactions. For all purposes hereof, none of the foregoing shall be deemed unlawful, improper or inconsistent with the Manager's obligations to the Company;

(d) to possess, transfer or otherwise deal in, and to exercise all rights, powers privileges and other incidents of ownership or possession with respect to, Securities, Commodities and other property and funds held or owned by the Company with the objectives of the preservation, protection, improvement or enhancement in value thereof;

(e) to lend any of its properties or funds with adequate security;

(f) to have and maintain one or more offices within or without the State of Delaware and incur such expenses as may be necessary or advisable in connection with the maintenance of such office or offices and the conduct of the business of the Company;

(g) to open, conduct and close accounts, including margin and discretionary accounts, with brokers and/or dealers, and to pay the commissions, fees and other charges applicable to transactions in all such accounts, without regard to whether or not the Manager or its Principals are affiliated, related or employed by such brokerage firm and receive compensation from said firm as a registered representative, or otherwise, which compensation may be based, in whole or in part, on revenue received by such brokerage firm from transactions for or with the Company, with the understanding that such commissions payable to said firm and mark-ups charged by said firm are not independently negotiated;

(h) to enter into, make and perform all contracts, agreements and undertakings, pay all costs and expenses and engage in all activities and transactions as may be necessary or advisable to the carrying out of the foregoing objects and purposes;

(i) to engage in all activities necessary, customary, convenient, or incident to any of the foregoing;

(j) to exercise all other powers reasonably connected with the Company's business that may be exercised by a limited liability company under the Delaware Act; and

(k) to accomplish any lawful business for the protection or benefit of the Company or its assets.

5.1 Management. The business and affairs of the Company shall be managed by its Manager. The Manager shall direct, manage, and control the business of the Company. Except for situations in which the approval of the Members is expressly required by this Operating Agreement or by nonwaivable provisions of applicable law, the Manager shall have full and complete authority, power, and discretion to manage and control the business, affairs, and properties of the Company, to make all decisions regarding those matters and to perform any and all other acts or activities customary or incident to the management of the Company's business. 5.2 Number, Tenure, and Qualifications. The Company shall initially have one Manager. The number of Managers of the Company shall be fixed from time to time by the affirmative vote of Members holding at majority interest, but in no instance shall there be less than one Manager. Each Manager shall hold office until the next annual meeting of Members at which or until a successor shall have been elected and qualified. Managers shall be elected by the affirmative vote of Members holding a majority interest. Managers need not be residents of the State of Connecticut or Members of the Company.
